Add your ideas and inspirations here to share with your whole staff team to use when you are back in school

The keynote speaker, Isabella, was very inspirational and lots of take away:

- 10 second rule
- pppb
- exit ticket
- enable table

Talk tokens (Point)

Question Challenge

Giving children a finite number of talk tokens in group discussions

Paper inbetween learners with a group discussion. Person talks and moves the pen towards them

Person 1 Person 2
Person 3 Person 4

Key scaffolding - which bit is stopping the child from learning/accessing? If you give a word bank and it's their handwriting which is the issue, it won't help them.

o Pose
o Pause
o Pounce
o Bounce

Asking questions when getting EAL pupils to repeat it so they stay heard!

I don't know → Go back to that learner

Keep post-it notes on tables for children to ask questions - when you're live marking you can see their questions and answer them (either whole class or personally depending upon the question). This shows the misconceptions that they have

Tell me more layout. Use these for spelling, grammar, facts quotes etc.
